Good restaurant. A bit pricy for bolivia but it's one of the few opened on Sunday evening! We tried the chicken diet soup, lama steak with herbs sauce, pizza pepperoni and fettuccine alfredo (which were linguines with a creamy mushroom sauce, nothing to do with the initial naming). The pizza is above average of what you can find in bolivia but not excellent. The rest of the dishes we tried were quite good! read more. What User doesn't like about El Fogon:

Terrible service. Food took an hour and when it arrived it was missing elements and some of it was cold. Had to search around the restaurant for someone to give me the bill. They were understaffed.
