What User likes about Panini's: a quintessable Italian experience. eating is plentiful and full of taste. the lasagne and the risotto we had where was the best in montevideo and the desserts were simply perfect to finish the meal. read more. What User doesn't like about Panini's:

service was hard to come by, especially from the maitre de, who really had a nasty attitude toward either expats or Americans. The surroundings were beautiful, the kitchen was fascinating (fully open to the dining room). For the most part, the food was good, but even the waiter had a problem doing his job i.e. the salmon was undercooked but he wouldn't take it back to the kitchen and said that 's how we eat it here...
