This place comes out of trouble and very well, it is not the paradise of Peruvian food but it has very good and forceful anticyclone heart. Few prices are fair for what they deliver and attention is very kind. If you do not have to have lunch on Sunday because everything is closed, this is a rich option and with an excellent price/quality ratio. read more. Should you feel like a taste of Latin American cuisine, the Tostadas or perhaps a robust chili in the Pardos Chicken Apoquindo are certainly worth considering, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
