What User likes about El Toconar: We decided to try here for dinner despite the bad reviews, as it had a reasonable menu deal. I'm surprised at all the bad reviews, as the beer was good and the food did the job. We had chorrillana and it was a large part with delicious beef. It is a beautiful garden with music. We ordered 2 items ceviche and chicken casear salad. The ceviche was pretty good however the portion size was small. The chicken casear salad was awful. It was difficult to eat and we had to pour out the contents of the bowl into a plate and cut the lettuce ourselves. The chicken was bland and didn't taste right. It is pricey co... read more.
