It is not the first chain of ice cream in Santiago, but it is one of the widest and the pioneer in huge cups of fruit ice cream that is impossible to eat in less than half an hour of drip struggle. The Bravissimo Heladeria of Providencia is one of the oldest and most traditional branches of this sector near the Manuel Montt district. With a full menu of flavors - many of them invented - you can eat a cone with one or two balls... read more.
